

Positive Behaviors Chart

Denise M Barrera, MPH

This chart can be used by parents in conjunction with the chores chart or as a stand-alone chart to encourage positive behaviors in children. By creating a positive atmosphere surrounding behavior change, parents can see the modifications that they are looking for in their children while placing the responsibility on the child – further relieving the parent from some of the continual power struggles they are experiencing with the child.

This chart can be helpful for parents and professionals